

Colleen Ingram, Vineyard Manager

Colleen began her career in viticulture on a 10 Acre property in West Kelowna which soon bloomed into managing over 60 acres in the Kelowna area. She graduated from Washington State University Viticulture program in 2019 and is currently teaching the Viticulture program at Penticton College. She oversees the North Okanagan division at Earlco with a passion focused on vine and soil health.