

Nikki Callaway – Winemaker and Viticulturist

Nikki is currently the head winemaker and viticulturist at O'Rourke Family Estate, located in the new sub-GI of Lake Country, where she specializes in small-lot Chardonnay and Pinot Noir production. She completed a Masters in Enology from the Université de Bordeaux and gained viticulture and winemaking experience in various regions of France including Beaujolais, the Loire, and multiple appellations in Bordeaux. Nikki has proven her talents through significant roles at major British Columbia wineries and in 2011, a Pinot Noir she produced was awarded the 'World's Best Pinot Noir' at the Decanter World Wine Awards.
